Leading global professional services

Supporting your business worldwide

MSI Global Alliance is one of the world's leading international associations of independent legal and accounting firms providing you with access to a wide network of professional advisers to assist you wherever your business activities take you.

Global reach, local expertise

MSI member firms have detailed knowledge of local laws, tax systems, regulations and customs, combined with the experience, skills and resources to support your business activities on a global scale.

Multi-disciplinary teams

A wide scope of professional advice and services are often needed when conducting business overseas. Drawing on their wealth of combined experience, MSI's accounting, legal and advisory member firms can deliver multi-disciplinary solutions tailored to your unique needs.

Trusted advisors

MSI member firms have been carefully selected and are among the most reputable, full service firms in their local marketplaces. Member firms know each other well and have worked together for many years putting clients' interests first.

Partner-led service

MSI members share the common desire to provide partner-led personal and professional services, working to an agreed code of practice. This ensures you receive exceptional service and reliable, accurate and timely responses.

Owner-managed businesses

MSI member firms are mid-tier, owner-managed businesses and understand the myriad challenges of running a business. Their advisors appreciate that no business is the same and provide seamless advice that reflects your needs.

Contact us

Contact your local MSI member firm to find out how MSI Global Alliance and its member firms can assist you to successfully conduct business across international borders.
